Dear Diego Russo,

We are using this opportunity to inform you that Mr Russell Bale (listen2rusell@hotmail.com) has paid the sum of € 560.00 EUR into your bank account in which we have done and, we hope you received a notification from us regarding the payment for your item.

We want you to proceed with the shipment, your money has been confirmed that is why we sent the confirmation document to you to show that your money has been paid and your money has been deducted with immediate effect from Mr Russell Bale's account and the money is non-refundable to his bank account because we have deducted the money out of his bank account and the money has been approved in your name and your bank details for the payment which is the sum of € 560.00 EUR.

Your money is very safe and secured so we are waiting for the shipment tracking number of the item for the confirmation so that we can update your account with immediate effect, we're doing this to protect both seller and buyer out of fraud, this is our new terms and condition to protect all our customers out of fraud/scam, so we want you to bear with us and we need your co-operation.

Send the copy of the shipment receipt to us and also, below is the correct address that we approved for you to send the package to because this is the correct address we receive from the buyer of your item.

Here is the shipping address:

Name: John Olajide
Address: Federal Housing estate, B24/25
City: Abeokuta
State: Ogun
Country: Nigeria
Codigo Postal: 23439
